Supplemental Money-Earning Activities

GOAL: That all money earning activities should be an experience that gives girls the opportunity to develop self-confidence and to practice and develop skills in goal-setting, budgeting, marketing, and customer relations.

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale and Fall Product Sale are the primary money-earning activities in which girls can participate. If additional funds are needed to participate in programs, the following guidelines must be met:

- Troops/groups or Service Units must submit a Group Money-Earning Permission form at least four (4) weeks prior to the activity to the appropriate Regional Office for approval.
- Any additional requests must be submitted through the regional office to the Chief Executive Office (CEO) at least four (4) weeks prior to the money-earning activity.
- Money earning activities will not be approved unless the troop/group has participated in the available council sponsored product sales.
- Money earning activities must be approved in advance in order to insure coverage by the Girl Scout liability and accident insurance.
- Money-earning activities need to be age appropriate, suited to the abilities of the girls, and be consistent with the goals and standards of Girl Scouting as presented in Safety Wise and the Blue Book of Basic Documents.
- Money-Earning activities may not be conducted on the Internet.
- The following suggestions of appropriate money-earning activities are offered as a guideline. It should not be construed as an all-inclusive list, nor does selecting an activity from this list guarantee approval:
  - Car Wash
  - Dog Wash
  - Garage Sale
  - Yard Sale
  - Recycling
  - Childcare in a public place
  - Home made craft sale
  - Approved program activities such as a Badge Workshop
  - Raking leaves, shoveling snow, weeding gardens
  - Birthday party service
  - Play, fashion or talent show
  - A meal
- The following activities would not be approved:
  - Raffles, games of chance or drawings
  - Direct solicitation of money
  - Product demonstration parties
  - Sale of any commercial product
  - Restaurant (or other business coupon) with a percentage gain
  - Any 'a-thon': bike, walk, rock
- Group Money-Earning Activities may not be held during the published dates of council sponsored sales: Fall Product Sale or the Girl Scout Cookie Sale.
- The purpose and cost of money-earning activities must be made known to the girls and their parents. Parents must sign a Parental Permission for Money Earning Activities before their daughter's participation in any money-earning activity.
